Guard Instructor

The NRCA Marching Knights are seeking an instructor for our award-winning color guard. Dance and/or prior guard experience are a big plus for this position. A heart to minister to young ladies through performing arts is essential.

Responsibilities may flex according to applicant availability and/or strengths but have traditionally encompassed the following:

- Working with our creative team to design shows and routines for games, pep rallies, parades, and competitions
- Working with the directors to choose, train, and supervise student leadership for the squad
- Selecting and ordering flags, equipment, and uniforms/costumes in coordination with staff designers
- Facilitating recruitment and tryouts in the May/June time frame
- Instructing the August camp (typically the first two weeks in August)
- Weekly instruction for 2-3 mornings a week (7:00-7:40), Wednesdays after school (3:15-5:30), and Fridays after school for rehearsals when there is no game
- Supervising the squad for home football games (typically 5 per season), competitions (max of 3 per season), and the Raleigh Christmas Parade (usually the Saturday before Thanksgiving)
- Coordinating supplemental parent volunteers as required, specifically for the guard
